Any Book by Tana French

Please note – I had computer malfunction and had to take notes and later transcribed them, my apologies for any inconsistencies, I am out of practice taking notes!

Rating:	Discussion:
8.0	Broken Harbour • I'm really enjoying it, I love that there aren't too many characters • I will definitely read more of her books • I have only read the first half • I will rate it on enjoyment factor, it's not literary it's a mystery
6.0	Broken Harbour • It happens right after the financial crisis in Ireland, and ties to the time • The characters were well done, I found the character of the sister difficult to relate to • When I got to the end I found that I was speed reading • I liked the ending
	The Searcher • I was looking forward to this because I liked the Witch Elm so much • I read the Searcher, and I really liked the characters, especially the teenage girl • The mystery was unique • French is a fun author to read
	• I read The Hunter and The Searcher and I bought The Witch Elm and am looking forward to reading it after reading the first two • I liked that it was suspenseful without the stress which made it enjoyable • It's not literary, but it was a great summer read
	Faithful Place • The story moves between two timelines and initially I found it complicated, but as I read through the story I could see why the author had done what they had and it made me change my mind.
3.5	The Searcher • I found the story to be too wordy and descriptive • The plot wasn't worth the time and effort to get to the solution • I really disliked this book and I will likely never read another book by this author

Recommended Books:

For a good summer read try Lucinda Riley
